

Corazon is a not-for-profit community organisation. It exists to promote mental health and well-being for individuals and families and especially those who have experienced distress, disadvantage and trauma. At Corazon we believe that all people should have access to affordable psychological and counselling services. We are committed to providing the opportunity for people to work towards achieving their full potential, forming positive relationships and dealing with life's challenges. Our commitment to justice, impels us to cross boundaries of culture, religion and social class in the delivery of our services.
